PERIODICAL RESOURCES FOR EVERY USER

Put the world's leading journals and reference sources into the hands of your users. Our three most popular collections house the widest selection of resources for learners at every level.

Content features include full-text articles, careful editorial curation, a low-to-no embargo rate, and detailed manual indexing.

Latest browse-by-subject feature included in General OneFile.

ACADEMIC ONEFILE

Connect learners to the information they're looking for with tools that make discovery fast and easy. Our premier periodical resource, Academic OneFile, provides millions of articles from over 9,000 scholarly journals and other authoritative sources—including thousands of podcasts and transcripts from NPR and CNN as well as videos from BBC Worldwide Learning.

Researchers are able to find accurate information and articles in both PDF and HTML formats with ease. This resource provides extensive coverage in key subject areas, such as biology, chemistry, criminal justice, economics, environmental science, history, marketing, political science, and psychology.

Academic OneFile is strongly focused on the undergraduate researcher. Unique among competitors, this resource allows users to browse by discipline from the home page and contains peer-reviewed scholarly journal content indexed in Google Scholar.

"It's all really about efficiency ... Students want to find exactly what they need, as complete as possible, so they don't feel like they're wasting their time."
